

ABOUT ME

Meg is a conductor and flautist based in South East London. Having moved to London in 2015 to study flute at Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance, she has expanded her music career into teaching and workshop leading.

EDUCATION

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance

2015–2019 | BMus First Class Honors Degree in Flute

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance

2019–Current | MMus Degree in Conducting and Flute

London Conducting Academy

2020–Current | Professional Conducting Course

EXPERIENCE

2017–
Current

FREELANCE MUSICIAN

PRIVATE MUSIC TEACHER

- Teaches flute, piano, music theory, conducting and vocals, all of which for beginner–professional
- Taught graded syllabus' for both ABRSM and Trinity College London
- Taught GCSE and A-Level Music Syllabus'

2018–
Current

CINEMATIC SYNCOPATIONS ORCHESTRA

FOUNDER, CONDUCTOR AND WORKSHOP LEADER

- Founded the film orchestra in 2018 in memory of her late brother
- Has lead multiple workshops in local London schools to help promote concerts
- Conducted and helped host concerts aimed towards educating children about film music

2019–
Current

EARLY MUSIC FESTIVAL

PERFORMANCE OPERATIONS MANAGER

- Organised and hire stewards for the three day festival
- In charge of 15 stewards per day
- Helped guide customers to concerts and workshops
- Opened and closed various performance locations
- In charge of all performers to ensure comfort and reliability

2020

LYCAEUM

ONLINE MUSIC TEACHER

- Let multiple workshops daily for the period of three weeks
- Workshops held up to 15 children, learning the history of music over the course of the three weeks
- Maintained concentration and enthusiasm

CONTACT

07818061432

meganstorerflute@gmail.com

www.meganstorer.co.uk

facebook.com/megstorerflute